Mission Statement

To pass down a tradition of learning and enjoying different music styles. To help the student improve in logic and reasoning skills as utilized in reading music. In conclusion, making music an amazing lifetime journey.

Payment Schedule

Music Tuition Payments are payable within the last seven days of your current billing period to pay ahead for the next month. A ten dollar late fee is charged after five days. Music Tuition is not refundable. Thirty days notice is required for lesson termination. Music Tuition is a flat fee standard that remains the same from one month to the next.

Lesson Cancellation

First priority for make-up classes is always given to illness and (48 hours) advanced notices. Make-up lessons will not be given for extracurricular functions. Make-up classes are not guaranteed during high demand scheduling issues. Make up classes are limited to once every three months.

Holiday Schedule

Classes will not be scheduled during Spring Break (One Week) , Memorial Day, Summer Break (Two weeks), Labor day, Fall Break (One Week), Spring Break (One Week), Thanksgiving Weekend, and Christmas Break (Two Weeks). Those dates are announced and not rescheduled as it is a studio closure.

Class Attendance

Class attendance is limited to just the student and one adult. This is an optimal environment for the student. Parents need to be involved and responsible for the students' practice.
